

Margit Schönauer

Margit Schönauer began her career as a pet stylist at end of 2004, after she completed her training in Germany Wiesbaden. In May 2005, she opened her grooming shop in Austria, Vienna and has been remarkably successful as a self-employed groomer ever since.

Today, Margit Schönauer is one of the most recognized dog groomers of her field and thanks to her outstanding achievements she advanced to the most successful pet stylist in the German speaking countries! She keeps herself always up to date and constantly expands her knowledge by participating on international dog grooming competitions, most prestigious seminars and workshops both at home as well as abroad. Moreover, she successfully applies and implements the gained knowledge in her own business.

Margit Schönauer would like to share this knowledge with you, so you too can benefit from it!
